Headline: Whitney announces Sheridan College Gift.

Whitney Benefits announces the recent gift of $393,950 to Sheridan College for various department equipment needs at Sheridan College. Whitney Benefits and Sheridan College recognize that new technologies and equipment and technological obsolescence occur on a regular basis and that the need to upgrade or replace equipment is ongoing.

Roy Garber, Whitney Benefits Trustee and Whitney's Sheridan College Committee Chairman said, "Whitney Benefits is pleased to encourage and support Sheridan College through gifts of educational and operational equipment and educational replacements and enhancements, the funding for the Center of Technology Enhanced Learning development, College Master Planning, building of new student campus residence halls, lead donor in the building of the Watt Agricultural Center and other gifting including the donation of lands. John Smith, Whitney Benefits Trustee said, " Whitney is pleased to be a part of this vibrant and productive educational institution in our county and community and looks forward to future gifts and actions of support with Master Planning."

Beginning in 1959 and continuing through 2002, Whitney Benefits has conveyed 124.11 acres where the Sheridan College campus is currently located and has contributed $24,096,976.51 including the value of the land, to help establish, maintain, and enhance education programs and facilities at Sheridan College.
